

Jason Tomme is a multidisciplinary artist who makes drawing, painting, sculpture, and photography. His process examines the notion of "location." With no single location being fixed, the question becomes: How does one locate something within a place and time? And further, how does this act of locating look?

Lives and works in NYC. Tomme was born in Las Vegas, NV. He has a BFA from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and a MFA from Yale University. He has been exhibiting since 2004 including exhibitions at Buia Gallery, Mary Boone, Nicole Klagsbrun Gallery, the Las Vegas Art Museum, Baik Art, Chinati Foundation.
